Covers these lab items: Blocks

What it is used for

A yoga block supports balance, alignment, and modified poses during yoga or stretching exercises. Choose a suitable block height and place it securely on a stable, nonslip surface.

How to use

1. Inspect the block for cracks, tears, deformation, or slippery surfaces.
2. Choose a block material and height appropriate for the exercise and user.
3. Place the block on a stable, nonslip surface near the intended position.
4. Demonstrate how to place the hands, feet, or body safely on the block.
5. Move into the pose gradually and maintain controlled breathing and alignment.
6. Adjust the block position if balance or comfort becomes difficult.
7. Wipe the block after use and return it to storage.

⚠ Safety

- Do not use a damaged or unstable block.
- Avoid placing the block on wet or slippery flooring.
- Do not force a stretch or place excessive body weight on an unsuitable block.
- Stop if pain, dizziness, or loss of balance occurs.

Care & storage

- Clean the block according to its material and allow it to dry before storage.
