Covers these lab items: Perming Cap

What it is used for

A perming cap helps cover hair during designated salon perming or treatment procedures.

How to handle

- Confirm the cap is intended for the specific treatment and fits securely without discomfort.
- Inspect the cap for tears, residue, or damage before use.
- Follow the product and salon procedure instructions for application and timing.
- Keep treatment chemicals away from eyes and skin areas not intended for contact.
- Clean reusable caps or dispose of single-use caps according to hygiene procedures.

Storage

- Keep unused caps clean and dry in labelled packaging.
- Store away from direct sunlight, heat, and salon chemicals.
