Category: Computers, IT & Office Type: Handling note Priority: Low 1 labs

Covers these lab items: Mouse Pads

What it is used for

Use mouse pads to support smooth mouse movement and protect desk surfaces.

How to handle

- Place the pad flat on a clean, dry surface.
- Keep the tracking area free of dust, crumbs, and liquid spills.
- Clean using a method suitable for the pad material and allow it to dry fully.
- Replace pads that are torn, curled, or no longer provide reliable tracking.

Storage

- Store flat in a clean, dry place away from heat and sharp objects.
- Avoid folding pads that may crease or damage the surface.
